

land ownership is temporary, or it may relate to a right of way over someone's land.

Securities: This Disclosable Pecuniary Interest refers to securities/shares which you own in a company where the place of business or land is within your Parish Council. The total nominal value of your securities must exceed £25,000 OR amount to one hundredth of the total issued share capital. It goes on to say that you must also register the security if the share capital is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which you or your partner holds exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class.

"Securities" can also mean shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stocks, and bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society..

Part 2: Other Personal Interests (required by the Member Code of Conduct)

There are no criminal sanctions attached to this second group of interests, but failure to declare them may incur a risk of being in breach of the Member Code of Conduct.

An explanation of these interests is as follows:

Membership of Other Bodies: This is fairly self explanatory. It asks you to list any membership of a body in which you have general control or management AND to which you have been appointed or nominated by your Parish Council. A 'body' in this sense means a group whose members who have a common aim or theme.

Membership of any body exercising functions of a public nature/charity/influence of public opinion or policy:

The first part of this section under a) asks you to list any body exercising functions of a public nature. .

The next part, b), asks you to list charities of which you are a member. Members who are Freemasons only need to list this if their Lodge is a charity. Normally they would only need to do so if they are members of the Grand Charity.

The last part of this section c), refers only to membership of bodies whose principal purposes include the influence of public opinion or policy AND where your membership of that body is one which puts you in a position of general control or management.

If you are unsure about any aspect of this Members Interest Form, please contact your Parish clerk.
